Dear IRMAC Member:

We would like to inform you that as an Information Resources Management Association of Canada member, you are now entitled to join the Information Resources Management Association (IRMA) with a special discount on the membership fee, so that you may begin benefiting from IRMA's international publications and professional services.

While the regular fee for IRMA membership is $65.00, the association would like to reduce the annual membership fee for you to only $55.00, a savings of nearly 20%!

Regular membership to IRMA consists of the following exciting benefits:

- Subscription to one or more of the following international refereed publications of the organization, published on a quarterly basis:

Information Resources Management Journal
Journal of Database Management
Journal of End User Computing
Journal of Global Information Management

- Subscription to the online Information Management, published on a semi-annual basis

- Discounts for conferences, seminars, and workshops sponsored by IRMA.

- Special discounts on IRMA publications (e.g. books, monographs, and research reports)

A special new benefit provided by a membership with IRMA is the recent increase in the content and size of our four publications. Now, each journal includes four, rather than three, insightful and innovative research pieces that will greatly enhance your personal and professional library collections!

As you can see, many exciting initiatives are taking place in this rapidly growing international group, with members now from all over the world, and the benefits of joining IRMA are outstanding! We are convinced that your membership to IRMA will provide you with professional, educational and research support and will keep you up to date with the latest trends and technologies in the field of IT management.

Enclosed, please find a membership renewal form. We hope that you will return this to us at your earliest convenience, as we look forward to welcoming you to IRMA.

Sincerely,

Mehdi Khosrowpour, D.B.A.
